Recognized for his excellence in practice, Daniel has been selected as a Rising Star by Super Lawyers every year since 2014.

Daniel's practice is focused on matters in all areas of matrimonial and family law, including, divorce, custody, support and pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements. Daniel has been practicing exclusively in the areas of matrimonial and family law and has appeared in the appellate, trial and family courts of New York State and has appeared in out of state and international jurisdictions.

While Daniel believes that practical resolution of family law cases can be achieved outside of the courtroom in a peaceful negotiated setting, Daniel is a skilled courtroom advocate and experienced litigator. Daniel's unique background in both finance and law creates a distinctive skill set that has proven effective in tackling the most complicated cases. He is known for his well-reasoned and thoughtful, yet relentless approach to the practice of matrimonial law.

Daniel received his Bachelor of Business Administration with honors from the George Washington University with a dual degree in Finance and Marketing and received his Juris Doctorate from Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law with a concentration in Family Law.

Daniel is firmly rooted in the New York City community where he lives. He strongly believes in supporting the local New York area both through volunteer work and service. Daniel is a pro-bono volunteer for the New York City Women's Bar Association providing free legal services to indigent litigants and has previously volunteered with Monday Night Law program at the New York City Bar Association. He is also a member of the junior board of WhedCo, a community based non-profit organization in Bronx, New York.

Daniel is an avid soccer player, scuba diver and sky diver.
